ORDER

This matter is before the court on the defendant's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [30]. The parties are attempting in good faith to resolve the matter and additional information recently received needs to be reviewed. Defendant has also recently entered long term inpatient treatment and would like the opportunity to finish her treatment. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [30] is granted as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for March 5, 2018, is continued to June 4, 2018.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and June 4, 2018, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: February 28, 2018.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
